“I've never seen so many people focused in one room, engaged the whole time, laughing and feeling inspired as when I invited Cyn Hannah to train the real estate agents at my office. She was thorough in asking me about our greatest challenges. During her hour-long presentation, Cyn addressed those issues and concerns and I was blown away by her knowledge of her useful information, and real-life examples that back up how it works ... and that it does work! My team and I left the presentation feeling good about ourselves, more excited and aligned with our goals, and wanting to talk to Cyn more about how she can help us improve our professional and personal lives.”

“Cyn helped my Ethical Professional Group think from possibilities and what we would love, versus what we think we can do and settling. She's a very professional, engaging speaker and had us do one exercise that proved one of her points so emphatically it was hard not to pay attention. We were definitely left with a lot to think about and a lot more of which to be aware. When I first talked with Cyn, she wanted to know about our group, and what everyone's biggest challenges were. She cared that her talk would be relevant to our group. Her talk was definitely the topic of conversation when she was finished. I would love to have her back. In fact, I am referring her to two other groups.”

— Victoria McDonald, LDA, Ethical Professionals Organizer

“I have heard Cyn speak on several occasions. With each presentation, I learned something new and left inspired. This motivated me to invite Cyn to speak at the Bassman Blaine Annual Training for their Sales Representatives in the states of California, Nevada, Arizona and Hawaii. Cyn was professional and easy to work with from start to finish. She was on time and prepared for all meetings. Additionally, Cyn was thorough in her learning about the Bassman Blaine Company and the needs of the sales representatives.

As expected, Cyn's presentation was well received. Her presentation flowed smoothly. It was easy to understand and connect to the concepts. There were two breakouts and everyone was fully engaged with the exercises. I was in the room as an observer and could see that the information was resonating with the group. I noticed big smiles and amazing energy. The best way to describe the feeling in the room is that most booked a follow up meeting with Cyn. Later that night, at our company dinner, most of the Sales Representatives thanked me for inviting Cyn to speak. It felt so good to offer the team something new and meaningful. We will definitely invite Cyn to come back.”
